

I want the right and freedom to choose any VRS provider. I don't want to be stuck with just one VRS provider. I want to call anyone even if they have different equipment, just like hearing people can. I want it to be easy to communicate with your friends and families.